2015 Winter Program

Study Tour of Seville, Cadiz & Jerez

February 2nd to 6th, 2015

International Universitas CEU

Universitas Senioribus is one of the colleges in the San Pablo CEU Andalucía Foundation, which through training at all educational levels, completes the cycle of university education with this cultural center, anchored on social Christian humanism, with deep historical, cultural and social roots. The University Center is especially geared to providing people from other countries, with information on the culture and traditions of our land.

A training program for non-formal education, where no previous qualifications or tests are required for registration, and it is geared towards people over 40 years with cultural concerns. This center is based on the idea of long life learning, through which people can enjoy learning new skills while staying intellectually active.

We offer an interesting and extensive training program based on cultural and social interest, where classical humanities and culture coexist with a host of interdisciplinary courses that help to acquire a better understanding of today's world.
